Our Scholar-in-Residence of Arts and Sciences Distinguished Professor Emerita of French at the University of Oregon where she has taught since 1983. Her work focuses on 19th century French literature, culture, and the performing arts, as well as issues in Jewish and European Studies. She is the author of Virtual Theater from Diderot to Mallarmé (1989); The Fate of Carmen (1996; 2001), and co-author and editor of Engaging Europe: Rethinking a Continent in Change (2005; 2007). Her latest book, Dreyfus and the Literature of the Third Republic: Secularism and Tolerance in Zola, Barrès, Lazare and Proust (2012) explores the "Jewish question" during the Dreyfus Affair in France, and the moral turning of each of these authors around this question. Prof. Gould is studying the Jewish presence in popular social gatherings of the late 19th Century in a work tentatively titled, Salons et Cénacles in fin-de-siècle France.

Our Shabbat Service Leaders

Singer-songwriter Beth Hamon is in demand throughout North America as a Jewish artist and educator-in-residence.

 the top five "New Voices in Jewish Music," her songs explore the Jewish and secular themes of peace, justice, hope, renewal and love. Beth has released three albums of original Jewish folk music, and has a fourth currently in production.

Elizabeth Schwartz is a freelance writer and musician based in Portland. She writes about classical music for the Oregon Symphony, Chamber Music
 Northwest, and many other ensembles
