Our Scholar-in-Residence

Noam Pianko is the Samuel N. Stroum Professor of Jewish Studies and directs the Samuel and Althea Stroum Center for Jewish Studies at the University of Washington. Pianko's research interests include modern Jewish history, Zionism, and American Judaism. His first book, Zionism and the Roads not Taken: Rawidowicz Kaplan, Kohn (Bloomington: Indiana University Press, 2010) uncovers the thought of three key interwar Jewish intellectuals who defined Zionism's central mission as challenging the model of a sovereign nation-state. His second book, Peoplehood: An American Innovation (New Jersey: Rutgers University Press, 2015) tells the surprising story of a key concept in modern Jewish identity. Pianko lectures widely on topics related to Judaism, Zionism, and Digital Humanities. He has been awarded a Mellon Foundation Fellowship, a UW Technology Teaching Fellowship, a Royalty Research Award, and a Wexner Graduate Fellowship.

Is There a Future for Jewish Peoplehood?

Prof. Noam Pianko will give lectures and lead discussions on these topics:

Session 1: American Zionism and the Emergence of Peoplehood

Session 2: 1948, The Jewish State and the Jewish People

Session 3: Peoplehood in a Post-Everything Age

Session 4: The Future of Peoplehood

Not Just Study

In addition to the study sessions, we'll gather for:

- Three meals together: Friday and Saturday dinners and Saturday lunch. For those staying overnight at the hotel, Saturday and Sunday breakfasts are included
- Participatory Shabbat services Friday evening and Saturday morning, led by David Fuks, former CEO, Cedar Sinai Park.
- Saturday evening entertainment by David Fuks.

Weekend in Quest 2016 is returning to the Holiday Inn Express Hotel, opened in 2004. The hotel provides dramatic lodging that offers a magnificent view of the mighty Columbia.

Study sessions, meals, and Shabbat services will take place at the hotel; there will also be time for walking, relaxing, exploring revitalized Astoria, and using the indoor swimming pool & whirlpool. For more details, visit astoriahie.com.
